

MM#7 Network Marketing Mastermind Event

As the 4th largest city in the United States, Houston has plenty to offer from the arts to science, shopping to dining, with friends or family. Don't forget to check Houston's Calendar of Events for shows or festivals that may be happening during your stay.

If you're looking for attractions, here are some of the most popular places to visit:

Bayou Place - an entertainment complex in Downtown Houston with theaters, restaurants, and located within the Theater District.

Johnson Space Center - home to NASA and the astronaut program, this exploration center includes tours, simulations, and exhibits.

Houston Zoo - The 7th most visited zoo in the nation with over 4,500 animals. making it a great family fun day.

Museum District - an area in downtown Houston that holds museums, galleries, and cultural attractions all within a 1.5 mile radius, such as:

The Museum of Fine Arts

John C. Freeman Weather Museum

Houston Museum of Natural Science

The Menil Collection

Children's Museum of Houston

And more...

Kemah Boardwalk - by the Johnson Space Center, an amusement park with train rides, a ferris wheel, restaurants, and boat excursions.

Montrose Neighborhood - a unique neighborhood with vintage shopping, live music, an antique mall, and pedestrian friendly areas.

Old Town Spring - a community designed to resemble America during the early 1900's, complete with antiques, live music, and museums.

Other attractions include:

Hermann Park

Miller Outdoor Theatre

Memorial Park

Water Wall

Rice Village

Saint Arnold Brewing Company

Lillie and Hugh Roy Cullen Sculpture Garden

Czech Center Museum

Downtown Aquarium